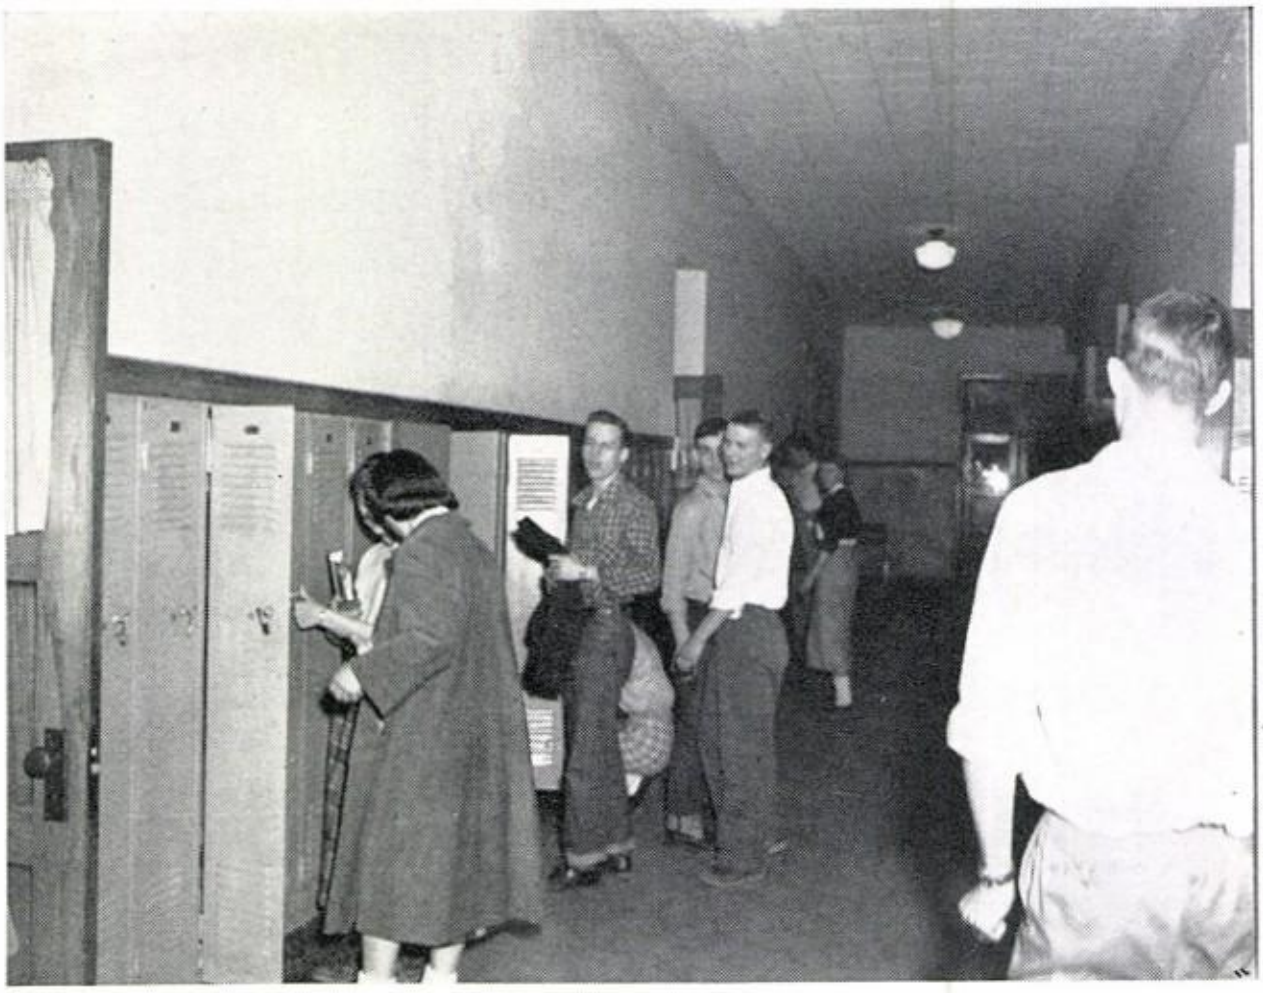
"Education makes a people easy to lead but difficult to drive, easy to govern but impossible to enslave."

- - Lord Brougham.



ANOTHER SCHOOL YEAR HAS DRAWN TO A CLOSE AND WITH IT WE FIND OUR MINDS AND HEARTS FULL OF HAPPY MEMORIES WE WILL CHERISH ALWAYS. THE FUTURE HOLDS MANY PROMISES AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR US BUT OUR SCHOOL DAYS WILL ALWAYS OCCUPY AN IMPORTANT PART IN OUR LIVES. THROUGHOUT THIS BOOK, WE OF THE STAFF, HAVE SINCERELY TRIED TO RECORD ACCURATELY MANY OF THE OUTSTANDING ACTIVITIES OF THE PAST YEAR IN SUCH A WAY THAT THEY WILL BE PERMANENTLY IMPRESSED IN EVERY STUDENT'S MIND.

"Our knowledge is the amassed thought and experience of innumerable minds."
— Ralph Waldo Emerson

Senior Class Review

Although a bit bewildered by the rough schedule of tenth grade, we found ourselves warmly welcomed to the Roosevelt building by the Sophomore Reception. We chose Don Treacher, Dick Shaw, Tony Gruner, and Bev Gruner as our class officers. After a lot of campaigning, Rita Weeks and Don McCann were elected to represent our class on the student commission. Our first ventures at raising money were a bake goods sale and a paper drive. By Christmas time we returned thanks to the seniors for our reception with the Christmas dance—"Snow Flake Frolic." This year was climaxed when our boys outshined the juniors and seniors by winning the annual high school track meet.

The summer before our junior year most of us could be found at Waterworks Park, working in the concession stand, our big project. When fall rolled around it didn't take us long to get in the swing of things by electing Kay Arnold as our class president. John Burton, Ruth Sanford, and Delma Scriber served with her. We displayed our acting ability when we presented the mystery-comedy, "Ramshackle Inn." By sponsoring a paper drive and a chop-suey supper, enough money was raised to hold the annual banquet and prom in honor of the seniors. Experienced from the previous summer, we found working at the concession stand much easier in the summer of 1954.

Sitting in the front rows of the auditorium we all felt a little tense and excited as our newly-elected mayor, Marv Picard, announced the beginning of our senior year. It was now our privilege to welcome the sophomores by presenting the Reception, "Enchanted Woodland." For the second consecutive year our class float won first prize in the Halloween parade. Stage fright grasped many of us on the opening night of our senior play, "Father of the Bride." The class officers were Larry Waldron, Don McCann, Delores Shiery, and Tony Gruner, while Bev Gruner and Delma Scriber represented the class on the commission. After returning from a trip to Washington and New York, our four years of high school were brought to an end with baccalaureate and commencement. Fond memories of the happy times spent in Coldwater High School will remain with us always.

Senior Trip

Approximately ninety members of the class of '55, leaving from Detroit on May 28, began the twenty-eighth annual senior trip. Their first sight-seeing tour was Niagara Falls. The Empire State Building and Radio City Music Hall were some of the scenes taken in by the seniors in the tour of New York City. After journeying to Washington, D.C., where they visited Congress in session, the capitol, and the F.B.I., the students returned home June 4.

The seniors were accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Hawley, Mr. James Vincent and Mr. Bertrand Sibley, who made this his last trip after twenty-five previous years of chaperoning.

JOAN BURLEW

Dear Joan:

Although your illness has kept you from school for the past three years and has made it impossible for you to graduate with us this year, we have not forgotten you.

We sincerely hope and believe that, with your fine spirit and determination, you will continue improving and will soon be well along the road to recovery.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1955

Events

Marv and Bev

Homecoming

Half-time of the Coldwater-Marshall football game marked the annual crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Beverly Gruner, by Mr. John Jackson, Mayor of Coldwater. Accompanying Bev in the court were seniors, Betty Thebaud and Mary Sue Grigg, and juniors, Mary Carlisle and Molly Milnes. CHS Mayor Marv Picard, Dave Harris, Larry Knowles, Howard Ac-Moody, and Bob Gray escorted the girls during the 1954 homecoming events.

Queen Bev and her court reigned over the colorful dance, "Queen's Haven", in the star-studded gym following the game.

Sophomore Reception

Portraying the splendor of fall with "Enchanted Woodland", the Senior Class played host to the Sophomores with the annual Sophomore Reception held October 6, 1954. Butterflies, willows, toadstools, and an artificial woodland pool transformed the Roosevelt Gym into a woodland paradise. Music for the dancing was provided by Tedd Rae and his orchestra.

Christmas Party

The annual Christmas dance, sponsored by the Sophomore Class was held Friday, December 17, in the Roosevelt Gymnasium after the home football game with Adrian.

As the couples entered the dance through a large silver star, the theme, "Northern Lights", sparkled in huge letters directly across the room over the juke box, which furnished the music. A revolving light was focused on a glistening star, with light blue crepe paper draped for a very effective background.

Valentine Formal

The annual Valentine formal, "Deep in my Heart," held at the Edison Gymnasium, February 19, was termed a success by all who attended.

Giant hearts trimmed with netting and hung from the ceiling and a big fountain spouting red hearts were two big attractions of the evening.

A program consisting of dancing, singing, and a pantomime provided the evening's entertainment.

Refreshments were served to all.

SENIOR PLAY

"Father of the Bride"

Caroline Frank's popular play, "Father of the Bride", based on the novel by Edward Streeter, was the choice of the Senior Class as they presented the three act comedy November 11 and 12, in the Roosevelt Auditorium.

The play, under the direction of Miss Betty Stevens, assisted by Janet Keyes, was centered around the approaching marriage of Kay Banks to Buckley Dunstan. The many amusing incidents that occurred in the chaos of the approaching wedding helped make the play a huge success.

Junior Play

Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen," a four-act play of the humorous trials of youth, was presented March 24 and 25 by the Junior Class. Under the direction of Miss Betty Stevens, the Junior thespians enacted one of the best-loved plays of our time. The gaiety and problems which faced seventeen year-old Willie Baxter superbly entertained the audience.

Student Commission

Mayor -- Marv Picard

The high school Commission has completed many new projects this year. These include the "hall monitor" system and a conference held at Clear Lake, February 5 and 6, with Lakeview, to improve school relations in the Twin Valley area. Also, appointed students took over the City Government for a day.

The Commission has done a very fine job on their projects this year.

The Magazine Kick Off Party was the prelude to the annual magazine sale of the Lincoln Student Council.

Ron Sowle, president of the council and general manager of the sale, announced that it was a big success with a total of $495.

An intercommunication system that has been the dream of the junior high for years will become a reality with the total of last year's and this year's sales receipts. This new system will be set up in the Roosevelt building when the junior high students move into it.

Don Sowle, Diane Mooi, and Dorothy Carlisle represented the ninth, eighth, and seventh grades respectively.

The 1955 Cardinal

Under the combined efforts of Rita Weeks, editor; Ruth Herman, assistant editor; William Booth, advisor, and competent staff members, the 1955 Cardinal Yearbook was termed a success.

All the Yearbook pictures, with the exception of the class pictures, were taken by Mr. Booth.

Although many extra hours of work were required to complete this project, all who helped did so with willingness and cheerfulness.

The 1955 Yearbook will be one to remember.

Quill And Scroll Society

The eight seniors and two juniors, announced as winners of the Quill and Scroll Award by Mr. William Booth, publications advisor, are as follows: Connie Soule, Rita Weeks, Sharron Dean, Betty Thebaud, Carolyn Thomas, Kay Arnold, Douglas Mitmesser, and Janet Keyes, seniors, and Ruth Herman and Roberta Hollis, juniors.

These awards for 1955 were, for the first time in the history of Coldwater High, presented to juniors as well as seniors. The purpose of this arrangement was to promote interest in publications among the underclassmen.

Those receiving the honor have shown considerable and outstanding ability, working on the "Mirror", "Cardinal", and "Cardinal Chatter". The Quill and Scroll Society only includes persons who have contributed a great deal to the journalistic field.

Debate Team

The Debate Squad, consisting of Ben Burk, Alice Greenwald, Gerry Kleindinst, and Ruth Herman, began their season by opposing Albion on Nov. 30.

Ben, a Junior, who is on the affirmative, and Gerry, a Senior, also on the affirmative side, have now completed two successful years of debating.

One year debaters include Alice Greenwald, a Senior, and Ruth Herman, a Junior.

Some of the squad's other contests were against Marshall, Homer, and Lakeview.

Miss Betty Stevens coached the Debaters for the 1954-55 season.

"The F. F. A., supervised by Mr. Clayton Wells, has had a very busy season," announced Mickey Paul, the president of the club.

Some of the projects the club of fifty-eight members has participated in are: a donkey basketball game held at the Armory, a soft drink stand at the Branch County Fair, and an F. F. A. banquet for both the members and their parents.

Four of the boys were sent to Kansas City, Missouri, to participate in the national F. F. A. Convention, and two members attended the state convention held in March.

Mr. Wells announced that the Coldwater chapter of the F. F. A. also entered the parliamentary procedure contest this year.

Co-op Training

Co-op training, which stands for cooperative occupational training and is designed to give on-the-job experience to students, was started last fall for the first time by Mr. John Bachman. Only juniors and seniors are eligible.

The students attend regular ciasses in the morning. In the afternoon they go to work at various occupations, such as retail, office and trade, and industrial work.

The co-op students are paid regular wages for working, and receive one credit for a school year's work.

Mr. Bachman gives those students going into retailing, instructions to prepare them for work. The office workers study such work subjects as typing, stenography, and bookkeeping in school.

Each student is graded for the co-op work they do.

A-BAND

Under the competent leadership of the new band director, Mr. Chester Curry, assisted by Mr. John Clark, the A-Band enjoyed the 1954-55 season with excellent results.

Among their activities were solo and ensemble contests held in Kalamazoo on January 29, two concerts, February 27, and May 11, and a very successful 1954 football marching season. The band officials were set up on a West Point system with captains, lieutenants, sergeants, etc. Judy Rennell acted as student director of the band, while Bob Johnson, captain, and Rosemary Young, secretary, carried out their respective duties.

Varsity Football

The Varsity gridders opened the season with a non-conference loss to Hillsdale, 20-6, then hosted Albion, only to receive a 37-6 licking. But the steadily improving Cards lost narrowly to Lakeview, 12-6. After the Spartans game the Cards suffered a relapse, dropping four one-sided encounters. The Sturgis game pitted two teams battling to get out of the cellar. In a thriller the Trojans finally pulled it out, 19-13. The Sturgis game was the last high school football game for fifteen seniors.

Reserve Football

The Reserve football squad, coached by Mr. Gerald (Whitey) Weaver, was largely composed of freshmen and sophomores, along with five juniors. Sportsmanship, fair play, and teamwork were expressed at all times by the reserve gridders. The team, starting slowly, reached the peak of performance during a rainstorm, in which they beat Hillsdale.

Varsity Basketball

The 1954-55 Coldwater High School varsity basketball club, coached by Mr. Floyd Eby, was composed of five letter-winning seniors: Doug Mitmesser, Bruce Rigg, Jack Robinson, Nelson Curtis, and Jim Thomas. Juniors on the squad included Jerry Maxson and Roland Petersen, along with Paul Douglas and Gary Brown, sophomores.

After losing three out of four games before Christmas holidays, the "Cards," showing better team work and precision, began to win more consistently and won four out of the next five games.

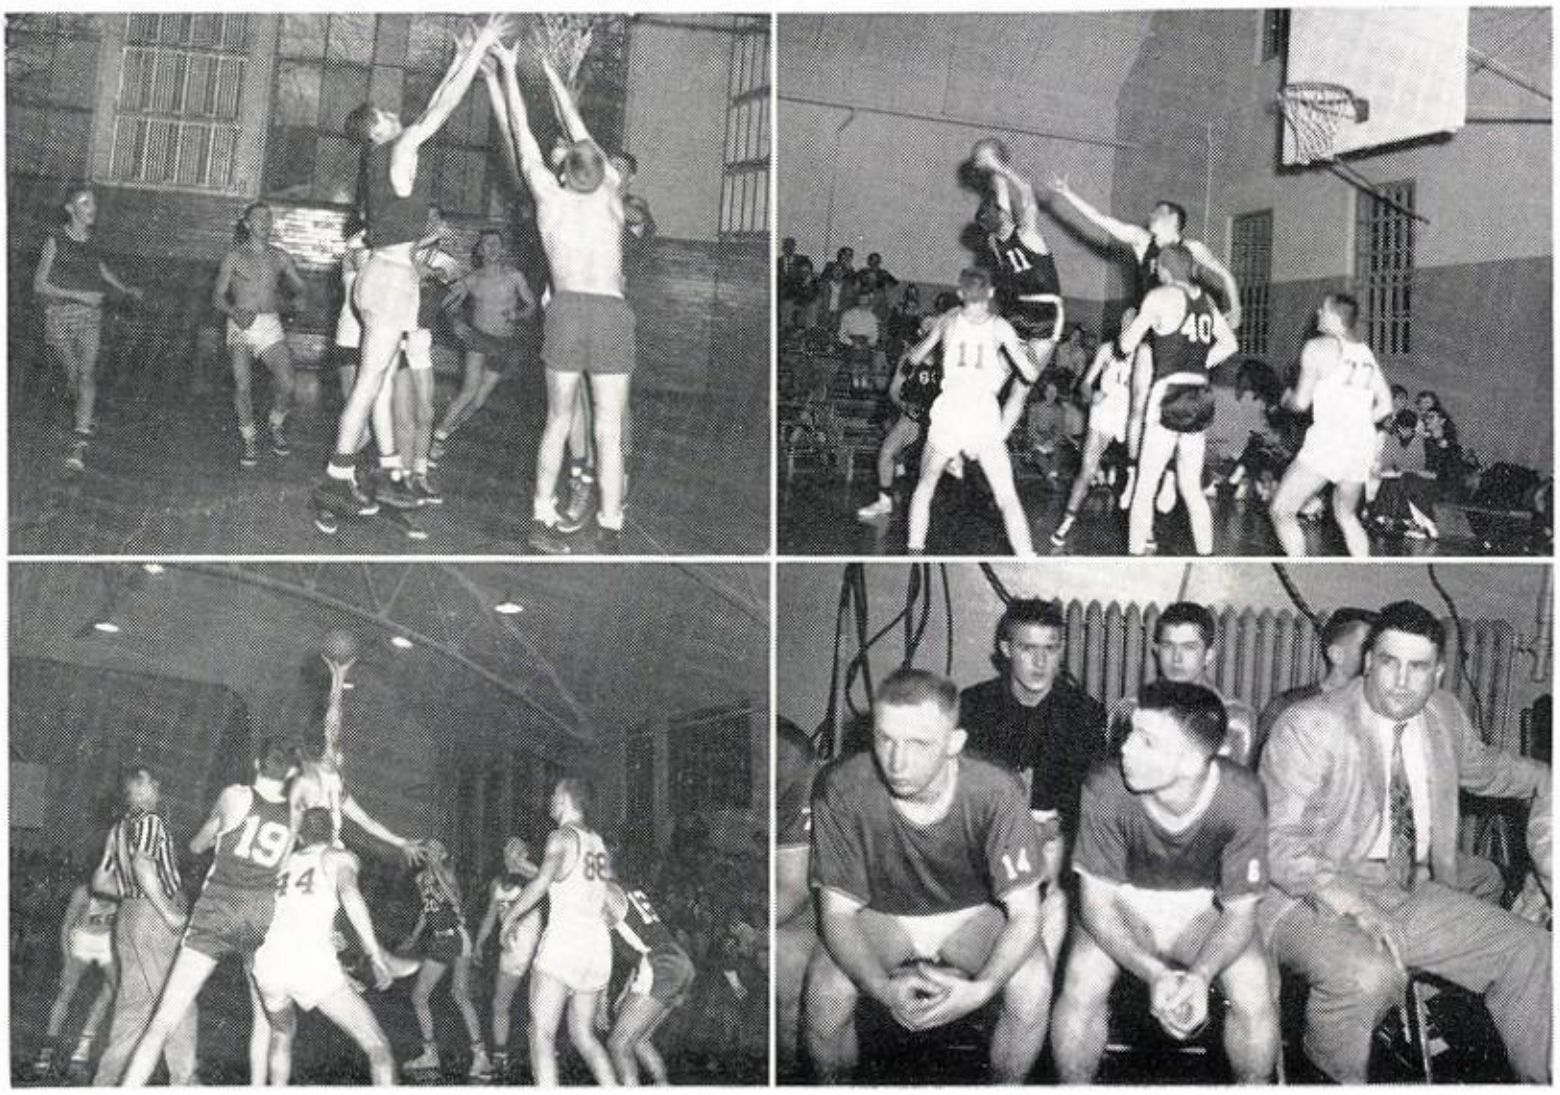
Varsity Basketball



Reserve Basketball

The Junior Cards, under the tutelage of Coach Bill Zabonick, posted a 7-8 record for the 54-55 cage season.

Although the record doesn't seem too impressive, the boys gave it all they had and were in there fighting until the final buzzer.

The Reserves posted wins over Three Rivers, Albion, Lakeview, Adrian, and were able to defeat the Marshall Papooses twice.

The squad was composed of mostly Freshmen and Sophomores, with Jim Smith the lone Junior. Next year's squad will have a good nucleus to choose from and should be in for a very prosperous season.

RESERVE BASEBALL

Coach Gerald Weaver will have to start all over this year building up the team, as all of the regulars will undoubtedly be moved to the varsity. The team will be made up of freshmen and a few sophomores.

Games are being scheduled with Quincy, Union City, and Sturgis.

1st ROW—W. Acock, R. Johns, R. Ivy, R. Smith, H. Rosenberry, D. Sowle, D. Lockwood, R. Sowle.

THIRD ROW—B. Rigg, T. Robey, E. Johnston, D. Hazzard, H. AcMoody, L. Farwell, J. Hepler, Coach Hagadone.

Track Team

With nine returning lettermen as its backbone, the determined Cardinal track squad is looking forward to a successful season, under the guidance of coaches Ted Hagadone and William Fairman.

The pole vault, hurdles, and distance events were virtually untouched by graduation and should be strong this spring.

The tracksters have a challenging schedule, which, along with the usual Twin Valley opponents, includes meets with Portage, Hillsdale, and Berrien Springs, and an entry in the Portage relays.

New plans to stimulate interest in future years were among the undertakings of the G. A. A. this year, including many new amendments which were added to the Constitution of the club.

Sports activities during the year included basketball, volleyball, ping pong, badminton and shuffleboard. Flag football, tennis, and golf were added to the curriculum.

Awards, consisting of chenille bar, small "c", numerals, G. A. A. insignia, large "C," and pearl "c" pin, were presented at the Annual Awards Assembly.

This year the club had two advisors, Miss Mary Jane Grummet, who left at the end of the first semester, and Miss Phyllis Coscarelly, who replaced Miss Grummet.
